

Arnold Spencer Leese (1878 - 1956)

Arnold Leese was the consummate gadfly on the back of the British establishment. Due to his insistence that Britain not engage in war with Germany, and thus save millions of lives as well as the British Empire, against the wishes of the Jews, he was imprisoned without charges or trial under Reg. 18b. One of the great hidden facts about WW II is that the "democratic" powers ("Allies") imprisoned people for political speech in a way little different from those of the "Axis" powers. So what's the difference? "Cui bono, cui bono . . ."
